Around the Square

Only about three weeks until school starts. Pity isn't it?

We are in receipt of a tap on the wrist which arrived via mail, pointing out that we had called the twice-a-month City Council meetings "bi-monthly."

Our critic supplied us with the word "semi-monthly" and we beat a hasty retreat to Webster's, coming out with this:

- bi—a prefix meaning:
- (a)—occurring every two...
- (b)—occurring twice...
- in this sense equivalent to semi..., which is preferable.

Well, we were second best, but that's not good enough.

Somebody pushed over a fire-plug on Mountain Trail and gave the water department a bad Saturday morning. The precious H₂O gushed out the break and gurgled down the street until the pumps were shut off.

There is, however, no truth to the rumor that Councilman Barter was out catching it in buckets.

A hasty gander at police records shows that a 20-pound owl was grounded up at Cypress Court. This nature note was appropriately jotted down by officer Bird.

But what most interested us was the line at the bottom which said briefly—"The owl was very nicely done away with."

Who had roast owl? Bird or Osgood?

The only sure way to tell who's who in the Wistaria Cabs is to watch for posture as they pass by. The thoroughly relaxed soul whose head just shows above the dashboard is Fred Lewis. The eager beaver leaning half out the door is Jack Rutledge.

The latter is looking for customers and the former is shy about his new glasses.

"Tex" Gotcher is taking a correspondence course in mathematics, we presume so that he can subtract a 25-mile speed limit from a 50-mile-an-hour driver and come out with a ticket.

Anyway, the whole police force was chewing pencils and counting fingers) along with him until somebody found that the answers were printed on the back of each lesson.

Now that the ends have been arrived at, "Tex" has been left to discover the means.

Did you read that the current "Don Gaspar de Portola" is in trouble up to his ruffled neck? Seems as how, on his trip from San Diego to San Francisco, he arrived at Ventura to find that his San Luis Obispo County constituents have filed a recall to depose him from his supervisor's job. Sounds like a dirty trek to us.

Anyway, we never have been able to restrain a faint laugh at this "re-enactment" of Portola's coastal journey, which is being staged with such magnificence and color. Only a few weeks ago we read Portola's own account of the miserable trip, how each night at the end of a day's march, they killed, roasted and ate a "weak old mule"; how they waited nine months in San Diego for a ship, subsisting on geese and fowl which the Indians traded for clothing—"some of the soldiers were left with barely enough clothing to cover their backs having given up the rest to avoid perishing from want."

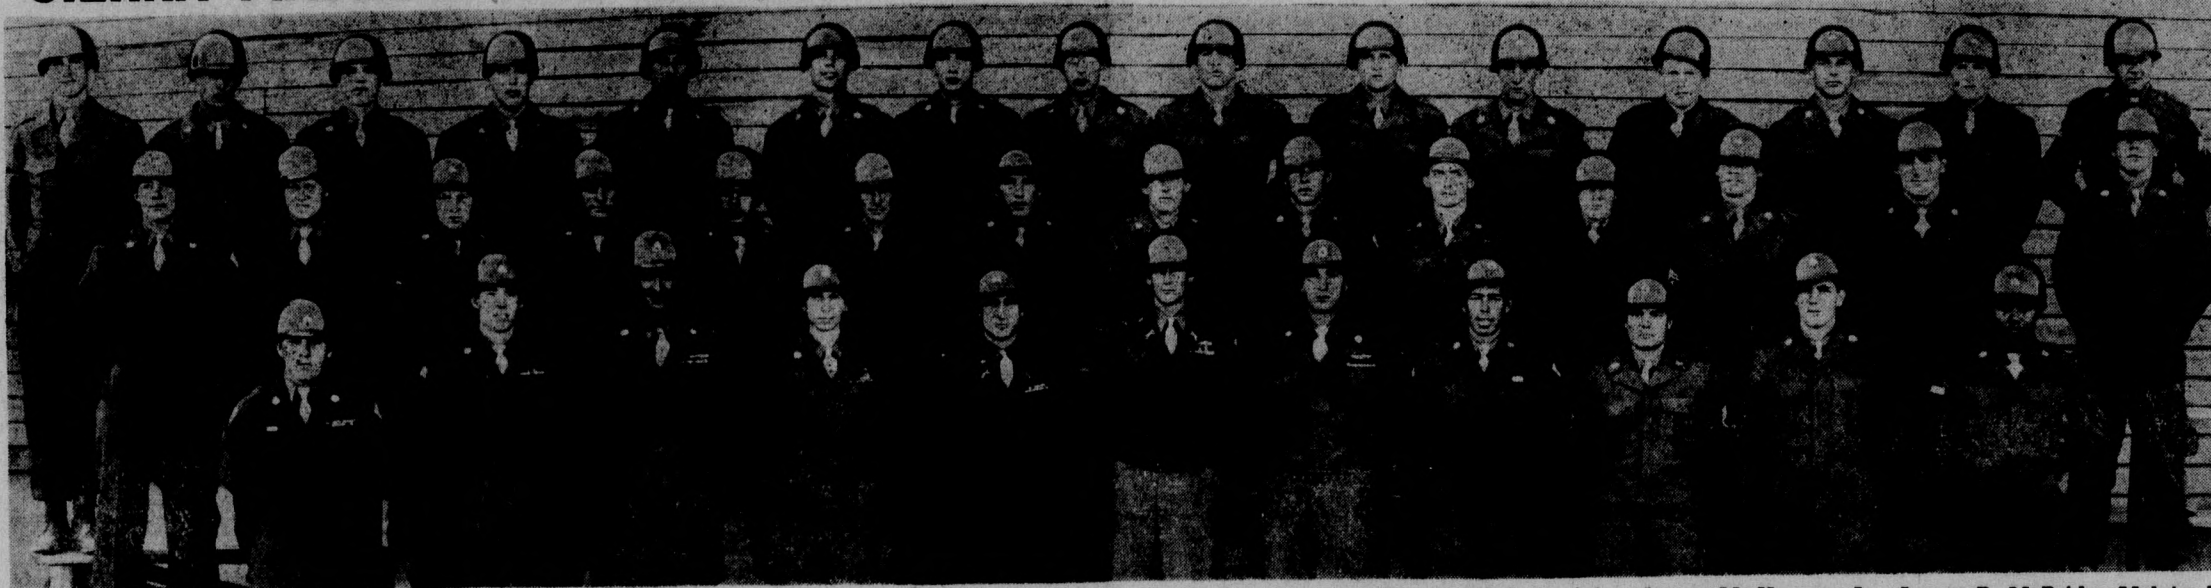

Time heals all—even hunger in the history books.

Horror of the Week!

An elderly lady firmly propelled her club coupe the wrong way down the Arroyo Seco Freeway.

Conserso Picnic Saturday

The Conserso Group of the Congregational Church has announced the annual summer picnic for the families to be given Saturday, August 21. The event will be held at Arcadia Park 3 to 6 when the dinner will be served. Games preceding the dinner will insure hearty appetites. Mrs. Lydia Cleary in charge of arrangements has planned transportation for those not having it if they will be at the church at three in the afternoon.

Flys To Honolulu Teaching Post

Mrs. Cathryn Elliott, 145 W. Grandview, leaves from San Francisco by plane today for Honolulu, where she will fulfill a year's contract with the Hawaii School System.

A teacher of thirty-two years' experience, Mrs. Elliott will be instructing at the Crippled Children Society's Nursery School for Spastics. This is her first experience in this field of teaching, although she spent five months in Hawaii schools last year.

Prior to flying to the Islands, Mrs. Elliott spent four days with her brother, Henry Sprague of Fort Bragg.

Mrs. Elliott is the mother of Mrs. W. C. Roberts and grandmother of Dixie and Ted Martin of this city.

S. M. Boy Scouts and Dads Plan for Mountain Camp

The Sierra Madre District of The Boy Scouts have reserved the Council camp of San Antonio, in the Mount Baldy area, for the week-end of August 21 and 22 for a Father-and-Son outing. The camping is to be done on a troop basis, most of them planning to leave town around noon Saturday. Private autos of the Scout officials will provide the necessary safe transportation.

The week-end will provide the boys with ample time for passing tests and advancements, besides plenty of fun in the camp swimming pool, and hiking in the immediate vicinity. The dads will no doubt

The Mayor and City Council were served yesterday afternoon with a temporary restraining order from allowing burning in the city dump.

The Mayor immediately closed the burning area until further notice. The city officials have been summoned to appear before the Air Pollution Control August 27 at 9:30 to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not be issued.

DRY SEASON HERE: CARE NEEDED

"FIRE FLAMES"

BY CHIEF HEASLEY

Sierra Madreans are well aware of the dry season we are now entering. To Fire Fighters, this season of the year is a dread. Just a slight error or a little carelessness can be cause for much fire loss. It is the time of year that the growth of early spring (that looked so pretty) is now the dangerous fire hazard that can spread fury throughout the country.

Folks are urged to be cautious of the danger and to be alert. The men of the Fire Department are making every effort to repeat the records of past years with low fire losses. To those who enter the mountains, we ask that the rules of the woods be adopted and observed. Here at home, we have our own problems to prevent fire. We must not be careless enough to light an outdoor fire without being certain that the conditions are proper. When the wind is blowing a gale, is NOT the time to light an open fire. When there is an accumulation of dry weeds or trash near an incinerator or an open fire, it should be removed. Some things must be burned to get rid of them. If you are in doubt, call on the men of the fire department to advise you. It is a great benefit to all of us to hold on to that low fire loss

Geraldine Ward Gives Saturday Evening Party

Saturday evening, the home of Miss Geraldine Ward, 273 East Highland, was the scene of a surprise bridal shower given in honor of Miss Betty Ann Brown.

Co-hostesses were Miss Barbara Sterling from Temple City and Miss Joyce Fergus of this city.

The dining room was gaily decorated with pink and white streamers. The table centerpiece was an arrangement of pink carnations, white asters and pink candles. The gifts were cleverly arranged in a large cornucopia decorated in pink and white.

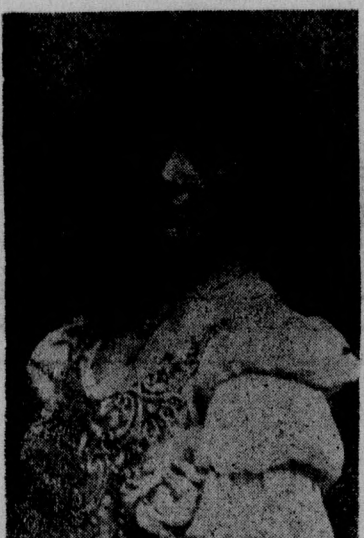

Games and refreshments made the party a great success for the eighteen guests.

"GOODBYE AND HELLO"—The group above posed for a farewell aboard the Altair as they departed a few days ago from Newport Harbor on the 48-foot yawl owned by Ed Tremper of Balboa, bound for Honolulu. Tremper, well known to coastal yachtsmen was the skipper and invited his friends Mr. and Mrs. Sewall Clark of Sierra Madre to make the voyage. Trouble developed when the craft was three days at sea, when the compass went out and inasmuch as Mrs. Clark had been desperately ill and unable to continue the voyage the party returned to port. Left to right: Mr. Tremper, Mrs. Billie Pollins, Newport Heights, Mr. and Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Darrows of Los Angeles, Tremper's sister.

Forest Lawn Service for English Born Sierra Madrean

News of the death of Mrs. Imogen York Edwards at her home early Saturday morning brought a great sense of loss to her many friends. Few people knew, however, that with her passing the theatre lost a Juliet of yesteryear, who once appeared before King Edward VII in a command performance of Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet."

For seven years she lived quietly in Sierra Madre with her husband, James T. Edwards, at 484 Marlposa. Illness curtailed her activities in later life, but her intense interest in both drama and music continued.

Mrs. Edwards was born September 30, 1880, in Portsmouth, England. In early years she was associated with the London stage and became the protegee of the noted English actor, Sir

DRAFT PLACE IS UNDECIDED

As the News goes to press, Sierra Madre and Arcadia have not been provided with a place to register for the first peacetime draft in the history of America's armed services.

David F. Nelson, 340 West Carter, is the only Sierra Madrean appointed to serve on the 25-man draft board for the Northeast Los Angeles County Group, which includes this area.

Pasadena and Long Beach draft board members will meet this evening at the Pasadena Elks Club to talk over arrangements and to receive instructions from Col. Hal P. Skemp, assistant to the state director of Selective Service.

Superior Judge Ingall Bull of Los Angeles disclosed that men chosen for the boards are "honest, patriotic citizens whose records have been investigated by the District Attorney's office. Many of them served on World War II draft boards."

Water Supt. Appointed by City Council

The City Council met Tuesday night in a short session. It was an adjourned meeting and the only action of moment was the appointment of Howard Wm. Brod as water superintendent, carrying a salary of $250 a month. Mr. Brod will resume responsibilities next Monday.

The appointment of Mr. Brod is not the whole story. Next Tuesday night at the regular Council meeting he will be officially made superintendent of Streets and Parks, salary increasing to $350 and eventually when he takes over the engineering functions of Sierra Madre the salary will be $450.

Mr. Brod with a thorough background and preparation for supervision was selected from nine other applicants. He is 38 years of age, born in Philadelphia, graduated from the University of California at Berkeley and has held several most exacting positions. Among his former responsibilities are listed: Chief Engineer-design and installation of pumping systems of the American Purchase and Supply Co. of L.A.; Metropolitan Airway Construction, Chicago (chief engineer); Hydraulic-engineer, dam design, flood control, culvert design and drainage in the Department of Water and Power, Los Angeles.

Joseph A. Hurley, the present city engineer will complete surveys and work which he has underway. The supervision of water, and streets was left open when Joe Swanson tendered his resignation to take effect in June.

Veterans Day Proceeds for Hospital

Hy Yodow who is inaugurating the first Veterans Day in Sierra Madre reports plans have taken shape and he believes, the event which has been set for September 18th will be a real success. All proceeds realized from the day's events will be earmarked for Veteran Hospitalization and Rehabilitation.

Apparently nothing has been overlooked for the amusement and pleasure of everyone; from a picnic dinner in the park where you can buy a home cooked lunch (or take your own), enter the fat man race, tug-o-war or ride the ponies. We'll tell you more next week.

Well Known Local Man at War Trials

Mrs. Robert Wright of West Grandview is in receipt of a letter from Major Paul Scott stationed in Munich, Germany. The contents have much of interest as Major Scott was for many years area salesman for Southern Counties Gas Co. and was very well known here.

Major Scott, a Stanford graduate and ROTC officer, went on active duty soon after Pearl Harbor. He returned from Europe in 1946 and was followed by his wife and small son in 1947.

Major Scott has been occupied with the War Crimes Trials, doing most of the screening for the Court. He was transferred to the Camp Dachau, the Concentration Camp where more than 11,000 were held. Later he had to do primarily with the Concentration Camp cases and atrocities committed against American Flyers.

Major Scott writes "last Spring when the Russians started getting tough in Berlin, I considered sending my wife and the children home, but didn't. We decided to sit it out — they're bluffing."

NEW FOLKS TAKE A BOW

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Riglesberger have taken one of the new apartments at 411 West Sierra Madre Blvd. They are interested in Sierra Madre, have property here and will make this their home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Brown of New Jersey have recently moved into the Bates property at 233 West Grandview. Mr. Brown is a nephew of Mrs. Bates. Mrs. Bates is a bulldog fancier.

The Lee P. Gordon, Jr., are occupying the home at 640 West Montecito. Mr. Gordon is connected with Cal-Tech.

Bob Mitchell's Boys' Choir Sings Mass at St. Brenden Church

More than 20 Sierra Madre friends attended the 12 o'clock High Mass Sunday at St. Brenden Catholic Church in Los Angeles when Bob Mitchell became a member and took his first Communion.

Bob Mitchell's Boy Choir with an obligato of violins and cellos provided the choral background of the service, which is said to have been one of the most beautiful and inspirational ever heard. Many of Mr. Mitchell's older boys returned to take part in the chorus.

Mr. Mitchell recently brought his choir to St. Rita's Church that they might be heard in his home town. He is the son of Robert Mitchell, a well remembered Sierra Madre attorney and former mayor of the city.

CENTENNIAL HISTORICAL CARAVAN

A tiny doll that survived the ill-fated Donner Party in 1846; Portola's personal diary of 1769; and the brass plate Sir Francis Drake planted on California's shores in 1579 have joined the "Centennial Caravan", it was announced today.

These and other priceless relics of California's past are now being assembled by the State's Centennials Commission. All will be displayed within two specially-constructed steel buses which will form the historical caravan to tour every section of California during the three-year Centennials observance.

$500 Sentence or 100 Days in Jail

Selling fresh mussels which were not labeled as unfit for human consumption proved costly to William Peart, Malibu highway bait-stand operator, who was sentenced to pay $500.00 or serve 100 days in the County Jail following a guilty plea to Judge John L. Webster in the Malibu justice court.

Visitors to California as well as local residents who do not know that mussels are poisonous during this season of the year, may purchase the shell fish with the idea of using it for food unless properly warned, the health officer said. Reports show that this year the crustaceans are more deadly poisonous than in any years during which records have been kept.

LIVE HERE AGAIN

When Mr. and Mrs. Walter Draeger and family moved last week to their new Pasadena home, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Hoffman and son, Ronnie, relatives of the Draegers, moved into the family home, 86 Esperanza, where Mr. Hoffman grew up. The Hoffmans are formerly of Manhattan Beach.

A few traffic citations have been issued. Some for speeding. A few for failing to STOP at the signs. Overtime parking was reason for some, while others included turning in street at the wrong place, driving on the wrong side of the road, etc., etc. If we are to keep our streets safe, then we must all help by driving carefully, obeying the rules of the road and by using a lot of just plain common sense and common courtesies. Why we become such dumb fools while behind a steering wheel is something inexplicable. . . Did you ever notice how mean and contrary some drivers can get? And yet, they are nice guys and dames when you meet 'em in their homes or on the sidewalk. That'll be all.

COLLECTED FOR COOLNESS

Home made frozen sherbet or ice cream should be a frequent treat this time of year. Welcome as cool refreshment on a summer day these desserts made with milk and fruit, are high raters for nutritional value too.

Marian S. Johnston, attractive nurse at Dr. J. S. Miller's office, is vacationing this month. She plans to spend part of the time at the beach.

Vacationers Return for Kiwanis

James C. Ellsworth, assistant special agent in charge of the Los Angeles office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, was the speaker at the Kiwanis meeting Tuesday noon and was introduced by Dick Lees, program chairman for the day.

The subject of his talk was "Women in Crime." He spoke most interestingly and told of the considerable increase in crime and use of liquor by women.

Chief Jim Heasley was called on to tell of his recent vacation during which, he said, he nearly froze to death, lost most of the fish from his hooks and couldn't stand the high altitudes.

Dr. Valois came back from vacationing at Newport Beach to attend the meeting and reported that Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lunsford and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Howard are also enjoying a vacation at the beach.

Rudy Hartman introduced David Roess, a former member, now coming into the club again after extended service in the Navy.

Herbert Beerbohn Tree and appeared in numerous Shakespearian productions with such actors as Sir George Alexander. During the Boer War she did several command performances to raise funds. Her reading of poet laureate Kipling's works so moved the listeners during one appearance, that they eagerly covered the stage with money.

After her marriage to J. T. Edwards, F.R.G.S., they lived for a time in the diamond district of South Africa. She came to California in 1915 when she was appointed to appear in connection with the New York State Commission of the Pan Pacific International Exposition at San Francisco.

When the Edwards later moved to Atascadero, Calif., Mrs. Edwards participated in numerous dramatic activities and founded a music club besides raising their six children. She was instrumental in bringing famous artists to the small community. Prior to moving to this city, they lived in Los Angeles.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Edwards is survived by five daughters and a son: Miss Eleanor Edwards, Mrs. Felicity McCroskey and Mrs. Virginia Bridge, all residing here; Mrs. Jean Sixta of Chicago and Mrs. Christine Teal and Edgar Edwards of New York City. There are three grandchildren.

Services were Wednesday afternoon at Wee Kirk 'O The Heather, Forest Lawn. Interment was at Forest Lawn.

DRY SEASON

The fellows of the fire company have now decided to have a man at the station at night. Each member has volunteered one night each month. Being thirty members, the rotation comes out just about as required. This will be a great addition to fire protection and a great gesture on the part of the fire fighters. All agree that it is most difficult to sleep at the station because of the newness of surroundings and all agree that it is a night without much solid rest. However, the men realize that the move is essential and because of the danger of fire, go to their night of duty with a grin.

Because of press time (and the writer's) this will be written before the results of the SGVFA meeting held in Sierra Madre, can be told. More will be told of the proceedings in next week's issue.

At fire drill last week, the Norris team took the winning points away from the Udell crew. The drills are competitive and to date the score is very close. Because a member of the Udell crew was slightly careless to allow an unnecessary water leak, the entire crew was fined the loss of ten points. Resultant score is Norris crew, 100; Udell crew, 90. These drills have proven of much value in keeping the men acquainted with the equipment. The desire to win creates speed. The mistakes of haste are discovered.

Being Fire Chief does not excuse a fellow when it comes to doing things that are in violation of rules. In order to get to the scene of the contest last Friday, Chief Heasley jumped the moving truck to ride on the running board. This is forbidden. At the meeting he was fined. Thinking he was doing everybody a favor by pressing the siren to see if it worked, cost Gordon McMillan a fine. To sound the siren when not going to a fire is another MUST NOT. (Another sound of the siren was heard as McMillan left for home.) Of course he couldn't have done that.

The regular meeting following the drill took on the usual appearances and activities. Much pro and con.

"Sincerity and truth are the basis of every virtue." (Confucius). "Without earnestness no man is ever great or does great things. He may be the cleverest of men: he may be brilliant, entertaining, popular; but he will want weight." (Bayne). To be a good Fire Fighter, one must be sincere and to be a member of Sierra Madre Fire Department, it is necessary.

Since Charlie Brown has taken unto himself a wife he has been asked a lot of questions. "Have you had a quarrel with your wife as yet, Charlie?" he was asked. "Never. She goes her way and I go hers." (He's smart.)

And now folks of our best little city, if we are careful, we will again go thru' the year with a low fire loss. If we are not careful, well, we can expect anything. Do not think that because we have few fires that we are immune. Fire prevention is the best way to be safe. Let's keep the FIRES OUT.

Richard Stork Takes Bride in Friday Evening Ceremony

A gown of white frosted organdy was worn by Eva Jane Cook of South Pasadena when she spoke vows with Richard Smith Stork, son of Dr. and Mrs. Victor E. Stork, 223 West Laurel, at the South Pasadena Memorial Baptist Church, 8 p.m. August 13.

Rev. Harold Doty officiated at the altar of white sweetpeas and gladiolus.

Daughter of Mrs. Sarah A. Cook, the bride's full skirted gown featured a Peter Pan collar and tiny buttons down a fitted bodice. Her fingertip veil was held by a Rosepoint lace crown and she carried a white testament covered with white shattered carnations and stephanotis.

Best man was the groom's brother, John E. Stork of this city. Ushers were Alan Doyle and Barthel Clyde of South Pasadena.

Following a honeymoon at the Stork family's Arrowhead cabin, the couple will reside in San Gabriel.

The bride is a graduate of Sault Ste Marie High School, Michigan. The groom is a South Pasadena High School graduate. Both are now employed with the telephone company.

CAMPAIGN KICK-OFF—Energetic and tireless 13-year-old Arthur Duggan was received by Governor Earl Warren at Santa Monica Friday Evening when the plucky, freckled-faced youngster thanked the Governor for the assistance that his Southland Boy's Town had received from members of the California Assembly and Senate. Pictured above from the left, Aubrey Wardman, General Campaign Chairman, Governor Warren, Arthur Duggan, George King, theatre man and Sam L. Collins, Speaker of the California State Assembly and Vice-Chairman of the Boy's drive. BY MAXINE BALLING

BET YOU HAVEN'T SEEN THIS ONE! It's a newly patented combination garment dryer and holder we just received here at the Balling Baby Shop. It has six bars about fourteen inches long, in a frame with a handle above which folds down. The idea is that you can hang garments on all six bars, hook the whole works over the shower rod in the bathroom. Then when they're dry you can fold the frame up flat and hang in a closet flat against the wall. It's an ingenious space saver, not only for baby's things, but for skirts, lingerie, slacks, hose and so on. It is handy to have in the car when traveling, and would be a dilly for Dad's ties. A dozen plastic spring clothes-pins are included. Ask us to show you the Kenmore garment holder. It's $1.79.

REMEMBER HOW YOU RAISED YOUR EYEBROWS only two years ago when anybody mentioned the word "Nylon"? Well the wonderful stuff gradually is working its way back into many things to wear. Garments made of nylon cost slightly more than others, but I think it is worth the difference because of the fact that nylon is so durable, and does not have to be ironed. It's light, strong, easy to wash, quick to dry. Take these new Dennison's panties for little girls. They're 100% DuPont nylon. Just feel the material! And they're only $1.15 for sizes 2 to 6... and 1.39 in sizes 8 to 14. Laced trimmed panties are 1.69. Kleinert's waterproof nylon pants are 1.15.

NYLON SLIPS from Dennison are really beautiful. Beautifully made, and trimmed with neat lace. Sizes 2 to 6 are $2.95. Sizes 8 to 14 are 3.95.

NYLON SWEATERS are wonderful for school. We have some new ones, in pastel shades, sizes 3 to 6, and they're 3.95.

IF YOU HAVE A BABY, and $17.95, and DON'T have a bathing tub, you should get a "Bathinette"... right away. Save you a lot of back aches. Just the right height, and there's a dressing top that lets down over the tub part. "Bath-a-Babe" is another one, made with tube aluminum frame, and a foot pedal which raises the top part with your toe, leaving both hands free to grapple with a wiggly baby. It's 19.95. Then there's a "Dressinette" which is just a dressing tub without the rubber tub... for 9.95.

BALLING BABY SHOP is at 401 1/2 South Myrtle Avenue, and the phone is Monrovia 40211 (and we have a nice lay-away plan which many mothers are using to buy school clothes).

PASADENA PLAYHOUSE

With all flags flying Uncle Sam comes into his comic own in Anna Cora Mowatt's celebrated laughmaker, "Fashion," which hits Pasadena Playhouse stage from August 17-22 as the next-to-closing playbill in the current Midsummer Drama Festival series of early California plays.

The Yankee uncle, Adam Truman, deals with the designing "furriners" who would grab his attractive niece's hand, and the shrewd, wholesome and good-hearted symbol drew the cheers of miners and Westerners as "Fashion" played the Pacific Coast.

Originally titled "Life in New York," the comedy brought Westerners their first look-see at Gotham and French styles and manners. The Tiffanys and their daughter, the Count who turns imposter and Uncle Sam run the comic gantlet in laugh provoking terms.

"Fanchon the Cricket" completes its current Playhouse run on Sunday, August 15.

MISS POWELL

The vogue for good musical entertainment is never ending and so "The Student Prince" should enjoy its two-week engagement at the outdoor Greek Theatre beginning August 30. Performances will be given every night except Sundays, with Jane Powell in the leading feminine role.

The well-loved "Deep In My Heart, Dear," "Golden Days," "Serenade," "Just We Two," "Student Life," and "Drinking Song" are some of the outstanding song hits in the melodious Sigmund Romberg score.

Youngsters who catch the clickety-clack of a telegrapher's key at the Griffith Park Miniature Railroad aren't just hearing things, for the mighty midget of the rails now boasts its own telegraph service in the new streamlined station. Officially opened by actress Virginia Mayo, the new service enables visitors to send Western Union messages anywhere in the U. S. Miss Mayo assisted seven-year-old Ricky Allen Connell in sending out the first message.

2,4-D BEST KILLER FOR POISON OAK

Poison oak may be killed by the use of 2,4-D as a spray, but it should not be tried when the leaves are hard and dry in midsummer. This is the advice of W. A. Miller of the botany division of the University of California College of Agriculture, given in response to numerous requests for a method of controlling the shrub.

S. M. ALUMNAE INVITED TO COLLEGE SUMMER PARTY

The alumnae of Rockford College have been invited to the home of Mrs. Everett Jerome Murphy of Hermosa Beach for the annual mid-summer party Saturday.

Sierra Madre members include Miss Hazel Farrell, Miss Jean Woodward and Mrs. Donald Metzgar. Rockford College is a women's college at Rockford, Illinois.

The proceeds are for the benefit of the nation-wide drive to raise funds to erect a Student Union Building on the Rockford Campus.

OPTOMETRISTS picnic

Dr. and Mrs. Daniel D'Arcy were among 100 Southern California optometrists attending a special summer-time educational meeting in Temple City Park, Saturday evening.

A picnic supper held outdoors in fiesta style featured games and prizes. Later in the evening a movie program was shown the wives and children while the doctors met separately for an educational program.

NATIONAL GUARD

From page one their issue of rations until 4 p.m., and gas was not turned on until 5:30—which meant that the first day's supper was served at 10:00 p.m. The boys did more than ordinary justice to their first Army chow when it was served up at long last—good, and piping hot!

Reveille at 5:45 the next morning came as rather a rude shock to those without previous Army service—but within three days the routine became normal. Classes began promptly every morning at 7:30, covering a myriad of subjects: first aid, mines and booby traps, map reading, sanitation, foot drill, rifle training, combat formations—there was a tremendous amount to digest, and an eager group to digest it. Instruction was carried on mainly under the supervision of Lt. Arthur Ford, 1st Sgt. Roy Griffin, S/Sgt. Melvin Lels, S/Sgt. Michael Castaneda, and Sgt. Augustin Rillorta.

Specialized instruction was given to Sgt. James McBride in communications, to Pvt. Malcolm Gerschler in motor mechanics, to T/5 Victor Morgan and Pvt. Frank Abela and Whitehead in driving and mo-

Mrs. Smith Loggins Entertains for September Bride

Betty McDaniel was entertained Saturday evening at a bridal shower given by Mrs. Smith Loggins, 201 North Adams, assisted by Mrs. Clarence McDaniel. The guests included Carmen Hill, Kathryn Kratka, Mrs. Paul McCullough, Gail Levenson, Mrs. Lucille Pickett, Martha Stinman, Mrs. Ethel McHenry, Mrs. Adele Mott and Mrs. E. R. Winter.

Miss Betty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McDaniel of North Adams will become the bride of Jene Mott in September.

for maintenance, to Pvt. Gildeden Switzer in small arms repair, and to T/5 Joseph Cox in military intelligence.

The eagerness to learn, the intelligent and numerous questions asked by the "recruits" really kept the instructors on their toes—which meant that often the instructors ended up by learning more than the instructees. "I have never seen a group so interested in Army training," said Captain Ullman, company commander. "I would have given anything to have had an outfit equal to this in intelligence and eagerness during the war."

The second week of training was devoted mainly to the firing of the M-1 rifle and the specialized weapon of the unit, the 4.2 mortar. Amazingly high marksmanship scores were attained by some men who had never fired a rifle before—and the 6th Army instructor assigned to train the unit in the 4.2 mortar complimented them highly upon the rapidity and accuracy of their fire with a weapon which none of them had even seen before. In all, 32 men of the company fired the weapon, all with a high degree of success—in particular, the 1st Squad under the command of T/Sgt. Valente Mariotti, which scored six direct hits out of eight rounds fired. All those who fired the weapon will be eligible to receive Expert Gunner's badges upon completion of a short course in firing techniques, which will be given at the Armory during the coming weeks.

All in all, the group that piled out of the special PE car in front of the City Hall last Sunday afternoon was not the same group that had left it at 3:00 a.m. two Sundays before—they looked like soldiers—they acted like soldiers—they knew how to march, they knew how to shoot—they knew what it felt like to tramp a dusty road at night under full pack, and how to peel spuds for 200 hungry men in a mess hall—they knew how it felt to make a bullseye at 22 yards with an M-1 rifle, and they had seen the crater left by their own mortar shell fired from a hill a mile away. They had been reviewed by the Governor of the State. All in all, they had covered in two weeks what many a man did not receive in a year of Army life. They had learned a lot, and they had learned it well. They earned the right to be proud of themselves—and Sierra Madre has the right to be proud of them.

Two Mile Long Table for World's Largest Picnic Under Pepper Tree Lane

Construction of the longest picnic table in the world is taking place at Ontario, California. The occasion is the All-States Picnic for August 28. It will be held under Euclid Avenue's famed Pepper Tree Lane. When completed, the table will be two miles in length.

An annual affair before the war, the picnic attracted close to 75,000 from all the states and from Mexico, Hawaii, Alaska and Canada.

Idea for the picnic is to provide a pleasant setting for Southern Californians' only annual opportunity to spend the day with their friends from the old home state. All that is needed is a picnic lunch and a yen for a good time. Twenty tons of citrus fruit will be used to provide thousands of gallons of fresh orange juice and cooling lemonade. Four Hundred pounds of coffee will be used for the making of ten thousand gallons of piping hot coffee. Each state of the union will provide entertainment typical of its state. This will be presented on movable stages which will travel up and down the two mile length of the picnic table. Free transportation will be provided up and down the avenue for picnickers who wish to visit with friends in any of the alphabetically arranged states.

In keeping with Ontario's longest picnic table in the world, Clifford Thompson, tallest man in the world, with eight feet, seven inches of height and 380 pounds of weight, will be on hand to greet the picnic throng. He will be assisted by fifty of Ontario's most beautiful girls who will act as hostesses. Another feature of the picnic will be a complete switchboard and telephone system installed at the head of each state's table to carry on official business with each other. It will also come in handy if someone in Alabama would like Idaho to pass the potatoes, which will be approximately one mile up the table.

HAWAII LIFE WONDERFUL DELICIOUS

Marjorie Bradley returned Thursday morning from a three-weeks' vacation in Honolulu praising the climate, scenery and people. The journey to and from the island was made in twelve hours by Pan American Air Lines.

Miss Bradley was a guest at the home of relatives, Marine Col. and Mrs. N. J. Rodeheffer, who live near Pearl Harbor.

While touring the islands, Miss Bradley visited Elmer and Ronald Pulling of Kailua, former Sierra Madreans.

Marjorie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winifred Bradley, 267 North Baldwin.

NEWLYWEDS VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Parkes, 833 Canyon Crest Drive, are entertaining their son and bride, A. O. S. 2nd Class, Ralph Parkes of the Navy, who expects to be in Sierra Madre two months.

While vacationing in the north, Mr. and Mrs. Parkes, Sr., were joined by the honeymooners who continued with them for a month's trip throughout Canada. Both couples returned here last week.

PARTY-LINE POINTERS

Party-Line people know the value of neighborly co-operation and by following a simple set of Party-Line Pointers, they get the most out of their telephone service.

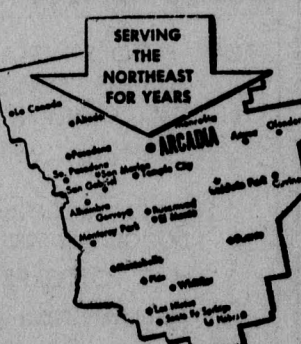

For example, they space their calls—don't make one right after the other: They ask their children not to monopolize the telephone: They are sure they have the right number before calling and replace the receiver properly when they have finished talking.

Party-Line cooperation such as this improves telephone service for everyone.
